

Resume Robert Vogt

Robert Vogt is a principal and partner with the housing market analyst firm of VWB Research, a firm specializing in providing real estate market studies and project consulting located in Columbus, Ohio with an office in Austin, Texas. Mr. Vogt has conducted market feasibility studies for the past 27 years. In this time, he has conducted, written and reviewed over 6,000 market analyses for market-rate and Low-Income housing Tax Credit apartments, as well as studies for single-family, condominiums, golf course/residential developments, office, retail, and elderly housing throughout the U.S. Mr. Vogt is a founding member of the National Council of Affordable Housing Market Analysts, an association formed to bring standards and professional practices to market feasibility. He is the immediate past chairman of this association. Mr. Vogt is a member of the Victorian Village Architectural Review Commission and a board member of the Northside Development Corporation in Columbus; a not-for-profit development corporation dedicated to bringing affordable housing to a low-income neighborhood. Mr. Vogt has a degree in Finance, Real Estate, and Urban Land Economics from The Ohio State University.