Commissioner Profile

I currently work as a land use planner for the Licking County Planning Commission where I help communities in the county prepare for growth and change. I completed Master's Degree programs in City and Regional Planning and Public Policy and Management at The Ohio State University, as well as an undergraduate program in Political Science at Ohio University.

I am currently an active participant in two local non-profit organizations, Advocates for Kids, a local charity interested in improving the lives of Ohio youth, and Local Matters, a local non-profit who's mission is to create healthier communities using food as a medium.

I live with my wife and two Rhodesian Ridgeback dogs in the Fifth by Northwest Area. I hope to bring my experience as a community planner to the commission in hopes of building upon the strong neighborhood fabric that already exists.
