

Nancy Pyon

Nancy Pyon has over 20 years in the insurance and financial services industry. She provides consultation services in the areas of business, real estate, financial planning, and career strategy. She is currently employed with Robert Half International helping individuals with new avenues for advancing their careers locally, nationally and internationally. Her work in the community is focused on self-sufficiency and awareness.

Nancy currently serves as Principal and Board member for the Korean American Community School of Central Ohio where she bridges and promotes Korean language and culture. She also serves as Vice President for the Korean American Society of Central Ohio, and serves other Boards such as Asian Festival Corporation and Asian American Commerce Group. She was recently appointed Executive Chairperson of The National Unification Advisory Council Republic of Korea and advises on political, social, and cultural issues with South and North Korea. Nancy is also member of an international young business leader network.

One of Nancy's past career successes include being one of the first Asian women to own and operate an insurance agency for a major insurance corporation in Columbus. Nancy has also served on past Boards such as The Hispanic Chamber and a graduate of The United Way Project Diversity Cycle 18. She is involved with The Columbus Urban League Young Professionals (CULYPA), National Association Asian American Professionals (NAAAP), and Young Asian American Professionals Network (YAAPN), and continues to volunteer and support many diverse communities.

As a native of Columbus, Ohio, Nancy attended Columbus Public Schools and attended The Ohio State University, majoring in Economics. She is also a devoted wife and mother and enjoys the arts and learning about different cultures. -
