

David Hull

5689 Strathmore Lane
Dublin, OH 43017

David Hull is an Assistant Director in the Columbus Department of Development. His responsibilities include sustainability initiatives, regional partnerships, and the Columbus program to Pay as We Grow and Grow with a Plan. Previously Hull has directed the Essex County (NJ) Department of Planning and Economic Development and the New Jersey Office of the Institute for Public Transportation. Working for a national solid waste consulting firm, Hull managed projects assisting Philadelphia to develop its overall trash plan and two county authorities to procure materials recovery facilities to process and market recyclables.

In Ohio Hull directed the economic development efforts of the Northland Alliance, including creation of the Morse Road Special Improvement District (SID). He served as a member, and for two years as Chair, of the MORPC Transportation Citizen Advisory Committee. Hull received a BA degree in History from Colorado College and Master of Public Administration (MPA) from Harvard University.
