Short Bio: Larry is a lifetime resident of Ohio who has lived on the west side of Columbus with his wife, daughter and various extended family members since 1981.

The majority of his professional life has been dedicated to providing quality career development and educational opportunities to enrich the lives of workers and their families. This included over 32 years as educational administrator in postsecondary career-technology for the Cincinnati, Columbus and C-TEC (Licking County) school districts. In retirement, he now serves as a consultant to the Delaware Area Career Center. Before becoming an educator, he worked in various capacities in manufacturing and as a Tax Auditor for the Ohio Department of Taxation. He received Bachelors of Business Administration with an emphasis on Management and Accounting. He then completed Masters of Education in Business Education and continued his studies with many postgraduate courses in Educational Administration and Curriculum Development. Volunteer work includes church-based ministry and support of nature preservation groups.
