

Christie Angel

Director of Government Relations and Public Affairs

Christie works closely with municipalities and elected officials as she represents the issues of clients.

She uses her deep background in the public and private sectors to advise clients on critical public policy, government, and community relations matters. She guides them on how to best advance their goals, often through building key relationships and public support.

Christie served as Mayor Michael B. Coleman's deputy chief of staff and director of external affairs and services for the city of Columbus. As a top advisor, she served as the city's chief government relations officer and was responsible for fostering relationships with business and community partners.

Her career also includes working as a legislative aide as well as handling government affairs for a major telecommunications company.

An active volunteer, Christie has participated on many community boards and commissions. Currently, she is on the boards of the Greater Columbus Arts Council, the River South Authority, and the Pizzuti Collection.

She is a 2015 YWCA Woman of Achievement, a recipient of the Ohio Legislative Black Caucus Corporate Roundtable Award for leadership as well as the St. Francis DeSales High School Alumni Award for community service, and a member of Leadership Columbus Hall of Fame.
