Short Bio:

Originally from the north woods of Wisconsin, Scott Stockman moved to Ohio to attend The Ohio State University and never left. Now an attorney in Ohio’s State Senate, Scott is a first-time homeowner who fell in love with Columbus’ West Side. He resides in Westgate and is active in local politics and civic organizations. Scott enjoys reading American history and a good spy novel. He has a small, but growing, record collection and loves Bruce Springsteen. He’s more of a dog person, but lives with a 16-pound cat named Einstein.
