Short Bio: Larry is a lifetime resident of Ohio who has lived on the west side of Columbus with his wife, daughter and various extended family members since 1981.

The majority of his professional life has been dedicated to providing quality career development and educational opportunities to enrich the lives of workers and their families. This included over 32 year as an educational administrator in postsecondary career-technology for the Cincinnati, Columbus and C-TEC (Licking Co.) school districts. In retirement, he now serves as a consultant to the Delaware Area Career Center. Before becoming an educator, he worked in various capacities in manufacturing and as a Tax Auditor for the Ohio Dept. of Taxation.

He received a Bachelor of Bus. Admin. with an emphasis on Management & Accounting. Completed Master of Ed. in business ed. Then continued his studies with many postgraduate courses in Ed. Admin. and Curriculum Development. Volunteer work includes church-based ministry and support of nature preservation groups.
