I have lived in the milo area about 35-38 years of my life. I was raised here. Graduated from Central High School. And from Capital University with a BA in English and Professional Writing.

I worked for the Ohio Dept of Admin. Services for 10 plus years, City of Columbus/ Recs & Parks for a year and the Health Dept for 3 years. I have been the Director of the Milo Grogan Boys and Girls Club for nearly 13 years.

Our community is different than the one I saw growing up. Streets that were once cleaned, neighborly, safe and beautiful are now worn down and infested with the wrong kind of activity.

I want to be among those who help restore our community, connect with what I call “the new Columbus”, which is fast growing cultural/ social life. I believe Milo Grogan residents need an opportunity to play a more active role in our city's growth through the commission.
