Geoffrey Phillips
Appointed term expires July 2011

Geoffrey Phillips comes to us originally from Durand, Wisconsin, where he was born in 1959 and graduated from Durand High School in 1977. He graduated from Augustana College, Sioux Falls, SD, in 1981, after which he relocated to Columbus, Ohio. Having lived in Columbus for 29 years, Phillips has lived in many neighborhoods throughout the city, located in the eastside, the northwest side, the Short North, and now finds his home in the Highland West neighborhood of the Hilltop. Phillips was one of the founding members of the Highland West Neighborhood Association, and currently serves as its president. Phillips is employed by Fidelity National Financial as their Title Production Manager for Central Ohio for their wholly owned subsidiary, Chicago Title, an industry he has been in for well over 20 years. Besides his dog Morgan and two cats, Lady Sheba and Cali, his interests include local history, photography, home renovation, hiking, meeting new and different people, politics, “neighborhood building”, and community development.
