

Todd Moxley Watson serves as a pastor, entrepreneur, author and thought leader. Pastor Watson was born and raised in Columbus, Ohio. Pastor Watson is the seventh of seven children born to the late Reverend John Aaron Watson Sr. and Nancy Bernice Watson. A proud product of Columbus City Schools, pastor Watson earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Secondary Education with an emphasis in social studies, from Central State University, located in Wilberforce, Ohio and is pursuing his Master's Degree in Business Administration.

Pastor Watson currently serves as a pastor of the Kimberly Parkway Church of God Church of God, located in Columbus, Ohio. Pastor Watson served as Senior Pastor of the Catherine Street First Church of God in Springfield, Ohio where he has answered the call to challenge and confront the spirit of despair, despondency, and hopelessness, by sharing God's word to people from all walks in life – particularly those who have traditionally been deemed the dejected, despised, last, lost, and rejected in the culture and by addressing the financial, familial and academic disparities in south Springfield, in particular.

Upon his arrival at Catherine Street First Church of God, pastor Watson was instrumental in establishing the church's Social Justice Ministry – which began distributing food to disadvantaged community members through its Feed My Sheep food ministry and distributed winter clothing for women, children and men who were in need of appropriate winter clothing. Pastor Watson created the Carson-Daniel Scholars, a scholarship fund created to award funds to deserving high school seniors and returning college students. On January 2, 2023, pastor Watson, along with his wife, Shawndreka, formally launched Heart Inspired Ministries, a holistic life teaching ministry commissioned to extend the gospel globally by meeting tangible needs in communities across the nation.

Pastor Watson is a Senior Manager with Pre-Paid Legal Services Inc. an organization that connects people with affordable legal benefits, services and support in all 50 states, Canada and the United Kingdom. Pastor Watson is the servant chief executive officer of Unlimited Potential Leadership Development LLC. Unlimited Potential organization assists its clients develop, increase, and move their potential to their best levels!

Pastor Watson is a board of trustee member at Mid-America Christian University in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and serves on the board's student affairs committee. Pastor Watson served as mentor to young men as a member of the Springfield, Ohio My Brother's Keeper chapter. My Brother's Keeper is a cross-sector collaborative created by President Barack Obama, charged with the mission of shifting policies and allocating resources that can improve outcomes for young men of color. Pastor Watson, has also served as a mentor in the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated's mentoring program for males, known as EMBODI and was awarded Congressional Recognition by State Senator Joyce Beatty for his service in the program.

In his spare time, pastor Watson is a voracious reader, music aficionado and active 5k, 10k and half-marathon distance runner, who enjoys any opportunity to spend quality time with family and friends. Pastor Watson is most proud of and thankful for his beautiful wife of 24 years, Shawndreka, and their lovely daughter, Artees Watson.