

Christopher R. Naegele

Business Representative of the
International Union of Painters and Allied Trades
District Council 6

614-620-6986 | chrisn@iupat-dc6.org | 8700 Memorial Drive Plain City, Ohio 43064

Objective

To give objective input in the decisions made to create an equitable workplace between the worker and the companies their services provide. A fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

Skills & Abilities

Committed to social justice, excellent leadership skills, experienced Union Representative, exceptional at building relationships, a problem solver, and creative in practical solutions to connect workers with unions that provide a sustainable living wage.

Painters and Allied Trades District Council 6, Columbus, Ohio

June 2015 to Present

Representing a growing membership of Painters, Drywall Finishers, and Glaziers throughout the state of Ohio.

Journeyman Painter and Member Local 1275, Columbus, Ohio

May 2005 to Present

Lead individuals on multiple projects in all aspects of commercial painting. Communicated with the general contractors and end-users until completion of these projects.

Education

Groveport-Madison High School, Groveport, Ohio, received Diploma.

June 1994

Major in Arts and Illustration, college preparatory Science, Calculus, and Literature.

Leadership

Since my tenure I have held a position as a Foreman on multiple painting projects, Vice President of the local, District Council Delegate, Field Organizer, volunteer Board Member of the Central Ohio Workers Center, and advocate of underserved communities by offering a path to the middle class with good paying jobs afforded by entry into the Union.