

education

Master of City and Regional Planning

Ohio State University, 2004

Bachelor of Arts: Philosophy & Political Science

Bowling Green State University, 2000

professional experience

Campus Partners, The Ohio State University

Director of Community Relations April 2010 – present

Primary responsibilities include working directly with neighborhood residents and stakeholders in the University District to provide information and solicit feedback on the development work of Campus Partners and coordinates with neighborhood organizations and the broader Columbus audience including government, city-wide stakeholders, The Ohio State University and other organizations about the work of Campus Partners. Primary means of communication include presentations, publications and media relations.

MSI Design/MKSK

Urban & Regional Planner, Project Manager May 2005 – April 2010

Primary responsibilities include project management of complex planning projects ranging from interjurisdictional accords to city comprehensive plans to the development of specific strategies to address the needs of a neighborhood. Clients include cities, community development corporations, public/private partnerships, townships, agencies and public entities throughout Ohio. Projects include public facilitation, graphic and written promotion, land use planning, economic development, redevelopment strategies, and focus area planning.

Franklin County Economic Development and Planning Department

Long Range Planner, May 2004 – May 2005

Planning Intern, August 2002 – May 2004

Responsibilities as the long range planner for the county included assisting the townships in developing and adopting comprehensive land use plans and working on behalf of the commissioners on regional and county-wide planning projects as well as representing them on committees and organizations throughout the county.

1104 1/2 North High Street
Columbus, Ohio 43201
614 . 949 . 5428
erinjprosser@gmail.com