

Robert Louis Caldwell, Jr.

Founder/Executive Director of the Faith Based Partnership Initiative

Robert L. Caldwell, Jr. has over twenty years social service experience. He is the founder or co-founder of several different social and human service initiatives including; The Faith Based Partnership Initiative, an innovative community development effort seeking faith-based solutions to the problems faced by the urban poor, and Break Dividing Walls, a series of workshops and learning experiences that address the issue of ethnic, racial, and economic bias in America. Robert, his wife Michelle and their children Caleb, Gabriel, Gabriella, and Charis are currently living and working in Weinland Park, a low-income neighborhood south of the OSU Campus area, where they are pioneering a multi-racial multi-ethnic community of faith called Mosaic.

For more information visit www.breakdividingwalls.org (select the FBPI link) or contact:

The Faith Based Partnership Initiative c/o
The Godman Guild
303 E. 6TH Avenue
Columbus, Ohio 43201
(614) 294-5476 ext. 103