Note: there are two additional sub-consultants identified to work on the services to be provided on this proposed modification, and two sub-consultants were also removed. The two additional sub-consultants are Resource International and Cannell Graphics. Resource International was added to take the place of Lee Testing Labs. Cannell Graphics was added for printing and reproduction. H.R. Gray was removed from the project because of their involvement with the Professional Construction Management Team, as their original scope was to provide construction management services.						$5,950,000.00 100%
