Re: Single Source Certification – Agreement 1-2X9QH9F

Dear Ms. Pesta:

As the manufacturer of the Intergraph software products, Intergraph Corporation, through its Hexagon Safety & Infrastructure division, provides unique value in supporting the elements of the software directly provided by Intergraph. Only Intergraph directly may provide the maintenance and support services for these products. No other vendor may offer substitute maintenance services for the products currently in use, as Intergraph owns the intellectual property and source code incorporated into the products.

Should you have any questions, or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
