

Biographical Sketch of Kenneth T. Woodard

Kenneth T. Woodard is a respected administrator having served the Columbus Public Schools in a variety of highly responsible positions for over 30 years. Ken is able to establish and maintain educational environments that promote academic achievement, collaboration, parental involvement, and enhanced community relation. He is a creative thinker and skilled problem solver able to create innovative approaches that quickly resolve concerns/issues with attention to policy, detail and equity.

Kenneth is goal-oriented and known as a solid and ethical decision-maker. Through his knowledge and experience, Ken capably develops implements and evaluates strategic plans that meet and/or exceed the expectation of a diverse group of stakeholders.

Ken currently serves as the supervisor for the English as a Second Language program where he continues to develop innovative program components to effectively address the needs of people from a variety of cultural, economic and functional backgrounds.

Ken is a life-long learner whose educational background includes a Masters in Education Administration & Supervision and an undergraduate degree in Education from Central State University. and