She graduated from Culver Girls Academy and went on to receive a degree from Ohio State University with a dual major of political science and journalism.

During her college career, Roessler was a member of the varsity fencing team and a Big Ten Scholar athlete in addition to a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority.

A former journalist, Roessler also had a stint working as a project manager for a sign company.

She, husband Bryan Huber and daughter Gigi are members of First Community Church and have owned their 5th by Northwest area home for about eight years.
