Re: Single Source Certification – Quote 2024-59539

Dear Mr. Dixon:

Pursuant to your request, Intergraph Corporation, through its Hexagon Safety, Infrastructure and Geospatial division (“Hexagon”) is pleased to certify that Hexagon is the only source capable of providing to the City of Columbus the I/CAD software and services offered in the above-referenced Quote. The software of which your I/CAD system is composed is proprietary and copyrighted software under the Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., which is owned by Intergraph. As the manufacturer of these software products and other Hexagon CAD solutions, Hexagon is the only vendor legally authorized to provide implementation and program management services for all of its proprietary software; to include the consulting services contemplated within the Quote.

Should you have any questions, or require additional information regarding this issue, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "William H. Starnes".

William H. Starnes
Divisional Counsel
Hexagon Safety, Infrastructure & Geospatial Division
