Commissioner Profile

Sarah Snyder has a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the Columbus College of Art & Design. She has over ten years experience working with local community groups, churches and businesses. She served as an active member of the Broad Street United Methodist Church Communications Committee for five years. For the last eight years, she has worked as a Multimedia Instructional Designer, utilizing new technologies to create dynamic and interactive ways of presenting educational material for online learning.

A resident of Clintonville for seven years, she and her husband rented a house in the neighborhood for several years. They then decided to make a more permanent home in the neighborhood. They purchased a home in the area near Clinton-Como Park and you can often find Sarah and her husband Michael walking their dog Helios through the district and Clinton-Como Park.
