

Lorraine Brock
Vice President- Urban and Diverse Markets
Nationwide Insurance

Lorraine Brock is Vice President of Urban and Diverse Markets at Nationwide. She is responsible for the Property Casualty's multi-functional urban and diverse market strategy. She has worked for more than 28 years in the insurance industry with both Allstate Insurance and Nationwide Insurance. As a result of various job assignments with these two companies, Lorraine has lived in Los Angeles, Denver, Chicago and Detroit. She now resides in Columbus, Ohio. Lorraine is a former resident of Washington, DC and is a graduate of Trinity College in Washington.

Since her arrival in Columbus a little more than 11 years ago, Lorraine has been involved in a myriad of community activities in Columbus and has served on several local boards including:

American Red Cross
City Year Columbus
Columbus Housing Partnership
Columbus Urban League, Chair of the Board
Columbus Parks and Recreation Commission, Commissioner
Columbus Urban Growth
Ohio Health Foundation

In addition to her local community involvement, Lorraine developed several strategic partnerships for Nationwide with the following national organization:

National Urban League
NAACP
National Hispanic Scholarship Fund
Local Initiative Support Corporation (L.I.S.C.)
National Fair Housing Alliance
Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation (NeighborWorks)
Habitat for Humanity
National Hispanic Corporate Council

Key Accomplishments and Recognitions:

- Traveled to South Africa to build Habitat Homes
- Received the Donald H. McGannon Award from the National Urban League.