Short Bio:

Daryl has been a resident of the Greater Hilltop area for more than 20 years and currently resides in the Westgate neighborhood. After receiving a graduate degree in public administration from Ohio State University, Daryl worked as a federal budget analyst before returning to work on fiscal, tax, and economic development issues for the State of Ohio. He currently serves as Ohio’s business development chief where he is responsible for managing the state’s primary small business, technology, export, and economic development programs. He is also a current small business owner in the neighborhood, having founded the Westgate BusinessWorks. Prior business experience includes leading his family's landscape design and construction firm. Daryl previously served over 10 years as a member of the Commission before being selected again to the serve the community this year.
