Re: Education-at-large Commissioner position

Dear Commissioner Womack:

I am applying for the position of Education at Large Commissioner. My belief is that education as a core mechanism in developing community and individual success. Access to education is essential to building strong communities and ensuring continued success of the Near East Side. I believe that my previous work in this position and on the Commission has given me valuable experience to further my services to the community. I am enclosing a copy of my resume for your convenience.

If you have any questions you can reach me at 614-937-0192

Sincerely,

Margaret Bailey Cooley
