Kelley Arnold, Resident of Cross Creek Village, 4936 Inspiration Drive, Hilliard, OH 43026 614-334-9872, shafer.arnold@gmail.com

Coming to us from Northwest Indiana, Kelley is a born and raised Region Rat. She worked in the Chicagoland area as purchasing assistant and later as a major account representative for a radiation dosimetry firm while attending Purdue University Calumet. After moving to Ohio in 1996, she continued her studies at The Ohio State University majoring in Political Science and Japanese.

Kelley and her family moved to the Cross Creek Village neighborhood in 2000. While working as a Census Bureau field representative, she was also actively involved in the local school, Hilliard Crossing Elementary, when her son began his journey there in 2003. After a brief departure from the community to live in Japan in 2005, Kelley and family returned to their home in Cross Creek Village in 2008. Since returning, she has been an active member of the school community serving as a treasurer for a number of PTO groups, including the Inter School PTO (ISPTO). She has also served on a number of the district's committees, including the Student Housing Project and the Technology Task Force. Kelley has also been involved with the creation of the neighborhood Cross Creek Village Civic Association.
