This legislation authorizes the Public Service Director to pay wages to Amber Schramm, a former employee of Public Service, for inadvertently working 6.5 hours more than the allotted 480 hours allowed for limited temporary employees. Ms. Schramm worked 40 hours for the pay period ending May 3, 2008 which put her 6.5 hours more than the allotted 480 hours. She was employed by the Public Service Department, Transportation Division located at 109 N. Front Street. Public Service requests a payment of $137.07 to be made to Ms. Amber Schramm for wages earned by inadvertently working 6.5 hours over the allotted time of 480 hours.

Emergency action is requested so Ms. Schramm can be paid her remaining wages in a timely manner.

Fiscal Impact: Funds for this expenditure are from the Transportation Division personnel services portion of the Street Construction Repair and Maintenance Fund budget.
