The Division of Income Tax supplies city income tax forms and tax packets to the public. These forms are used for yearly individual and corporate tax returns and are vital to daily operation. In accordance with the Columbus City Code, the Income Tax Division used the competitive bidding process to obtain a contract for the production of the personalized income tax forms.

Bids for the printing of the personalized income tax forms were formally bid by the Purchasing Office. Six (6) timely bids were received, but not all deemed responsive.

The bid from The Shamrock Companies, Inc. was determined to be the best, as well as most responsive bid, providing an alternate and acceptable bid. The Shamrock Companies produced the annual tax forms packets for 2001. The Shamrock Companies stated in a memo "The Shamrock Companies will produce the City of Columbus Tax Forms in the same manner that they were produced last year if awarded the contract. The Shamrock Companies will provide samples for approval and verification."
