BACKGROUND: The Columbus Department of Development is proposing to enter into a Jobs Growth Incentive Agreement with The Huntington National Bank, a banking association, Huntington Bancshares, Inc. Huntington Insurance, Inc., Huntington Investment Company, and Huntington Technology Finance, Inc. (collectively known as and hereinafter referred to as "Huntington National Bank") equal to thirty-five percent (35%) of the amount of personal income tax withheld above the baseline on new employees to Columbus as of December 31, 2016, for a term up to six (6) consecutive years, capped annually, not to exceed $15 million for the purposes of job creation and employment opportunities for the citizens of Columbus.

P. W. Huntington formed and opened the first Huntington National Bank in downtown Columbus in 1866. Today, Huntington National Bank is an affiliate of Huntington Bancshares Inc. with $101 billion of assets, a network of 1,103 branches and 1,979 ATMs across eight Midwestern states: Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia; its 2016 acquisition of FirstMerit Corporation expands its presence into Illinois and Wisconsin. Huntington National Bank provides full-service commercial and consumer banking services, mortgage banking services, equipment leasing, investment management, trust services, brokerage services, customized insurance service program, and other financial products and services.

Huntington National Bank proposes to invest approximately $19.5 million, which includes $1.5 million in acquisition cost, to consolidate, expand and relocate its operations center from Morse Road (Northland Center) into a larger vacant commercial facility that consists of approximately 212,000 sq. ft. (the old Meijer grocery store) at 5555 Cleveland Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43231. In addition, Huntington National Bank will also consolidate its Crosswoods facility into the proposed project site; whereas, both facilities are currently leased with both lease terms set to expire simultaneously.

Huntington National Bank will create 1,000 new full-time permanent positions with an estimated new annual payroll of approximately $60 million (an average annual salary of $60,000), exclusive of benefits and retain employees, the total of which will be determined as of calendar year ending December 31, 2016. The proposed new job creation, along with the retained jobs include sites located at 5555 Cleveland Avenue, the corporate headquarters at 41 S. High Street, 37 W. Broad Street and all other non-retail locations situated in the City of Columbus.

Huntington National Bank is also embarking on a community strategic plan that includes the following lending commitment: $175 million in small business lending in Columbus low-to-moderate income census tracts (LMIT) with focused outreach in Linden and Northland, $25 million in LMIT mortgage lending with waived closing costs and including small home improvements unsecured borrowing opportunities of up to $3,000, $100 million in community development loans and investment throughout Columbus LMIT.

Huntington National Bank is requesting a Jobs Growth Incentive from the City of Columbus to assist in the expansion of this project. This legislation is presented as 30 day legislation.
