WHEREAS, Dan Charles grew up on the South Side of Columbus, where he developed a lifelong sense of pride in his community; and

WHEREAS, Dan's passion for his neighborhood led him to become one of its foremost advocates and activists, earning him the respect and affection of his peers as he worked tirelessly on behalf of the South Side and its residents; and

WHEREAS, among Dan's myriad achievements was the creation of the South Side Community Action Network in 1991 as a block watch group for the neighborhood surrounding South High School, and its subsequent expansion into an organization that pursued housing-code problems, planted community gardens, and improved access to educational opportunities for youth; and

WHEREAS, Dan later led a neighborhood effort that was successful in closing a Stewart Avenue carryout that was selling cigarettes and alcohol to minors, further cementing his legacy as a practical and effective civic leader and earning him the gratitude of neighbors and parents; and

WHEREAS, Dan's many years of service will always be remembered by those who knew him, and will inspire the leaders who follow in his footsteps; now, therefore
