BACKGROUND

In the Fall of 2019, President Pro Tempore Elizabeth Brown, the Mayor's Office, and the Columbus Women's Commission were awarded a CityStart grant from Cities for Financial Empowerment Fund (CFE Fund) supporting the creation of a Financial Empowerment Roadmap to help women and families achieve financial security.

Since then, the city has partnered with CFE Fund on a variety of programs to support Columbus women's and families' financial stability. The CFE Fund awarded Columbus a $150,000 grant for 2022 to plan and launch a Financial Empowerment Center (FEC). Additional funds supporting the Columbus FEC are anticipated for 2023.

In 2021, Columbus issued a Request for Proposals (RFQ019295) for the launch of a Financial Empowerment Center, and received two responsive proposals. An evaluation committee reviewed and scored both proposals and recommended that the Department of Development enter into contract with Jewish Family Service of Columbus (JFS).

JFS hired and trained three financial counselors and planned a launch in collaboration with the Department of Development, President Pro Tempore Elizabeth Brown, and the Columbus Women's Commission. The Financial Empowerment Center launched in April of 2022 and has grown to supporting over a hundred clients since then, helping Columbus residents pay down thousands of dollars in debt and to set aside even more in savings.

This legislation authorizes the Director of the Department of Development to do a third modification to a non-profit services contract with Jewish Family Service of Columbus to extend the time frame of the existing contract to expire June 30, 2024.

Columbus City Council voted on December 6, 2021 to pass Ordinance Number 3272-2021, which authorized the Director of the Department of Development to enter into a non-profit services contract with Jewish Family Service to plan the launch and of and operate a financial empowerment center in Columbus. Ordinance 3406-2022 was a second modification passed by Columbus City Council on December 12, 2022 that added an additional $240,000 and extended the contract to December 31, 2023. Council passed Ordinance 1917-2023 that added an additional $200,000 to the contract but did not extend the time of the contract beyond December 31, 2023.

Jewish Family Services will continue to act as the Financial Counseling Provider to provide free, professional, one on one financial counseling services to Columbus residents as a municipal service. The funding provided will be used to retain three (3) financial counselors and one (1) program manager employed by Jewish Family Services for the provision of financial counseling services. The funding will also support marketing services and supplies to raise public awareness of the availability of these free financial counseling services. These services cannot be provided by current City employees at this time.

In reference to section 329.09 of the Columbus City Code, the purpose of this modification to extend the duration of the existing agreement is to expend all currently available funds from the original contract. Although this is considered a contract modification, the terms of the original contract remain the same with the exception of additional time to expend funds. This ordinance does not constitute a renewal with a contractor. No additional goods or services are being procured from the contractor in this modification.

Emergency Designation: Emergency action is requested to ensure that Jewish Family Service can continue to provide financial counseling services beyond the current contract expiration of December 31, 2023 to clients without interruption and continue the progress of expanding financial services to the residents of Central Ohio.

FISCAL IMPACT: No additional funding is required for this ordinance.
