BACKGROUND: Hotel/Motel Excise Tax proceeds are disbursed in accordance with Section 371.02(c) of Columbus City Codes, which says, in part: The maximum amount of tax to be allocated for the purpose of expanding cultural services for the enrichment of the community shall not exceed a rate of 1.5% in relation to the 5.1% combined rate. The City traditionally contracts with The Greater Columbus Arts Council (GCAC) to administer a variety of art and cultural programs and grants, and allocates to the agency the bulk of said revenue. The 2005 allocation provided with this ordinance is $3,404,644, 97% of funds allocated from hotel/motel tax receipts for cultural services for community enrichment. The balance of projected receipts, $105,300, will be reserved by the City for cultural arts programs and services contracted by the City Recreation and Parks Department.

Award of this contract meets the procurement provisions of Chapter 329.07(e) and 3901.01 of the Columbus City Code, 1959.

Emergency action is requested to expedite the distribution of grants and support by GCAC into the community.

FISCAL IMPACT: The contract authorized by this legislation is included in the 2005 city budget. Allocated dollars represent 97% of hotel/motel tax funds set aside for cultural services for the enrichment of the community.
