BACKGROUND:

Canine "Boris" a police dog was purchased by the Division of Police in March 1998. "Boris" is being retired from active police service due to his becoming noticeably slower and sluggish in police training scenarios and deployments, which are largely due to his age of nearly 10 years old.

It is recommended that "Boris" be donated to Police Officer Wallace Sprague "Boris's" handler prior to accepting a new job. Officer Sprague can provide a good home for this canine that has served the citizens of Columbus for the past seven - (7) years.

FISCAL IMPACT:
