Magic a police horse with the registered name of "Petroleum Magic", has been with the Mounted Unit since April 1999.

Dr. William M. Gesel, D.V.M., the Mounted Unit's veterinarian, has recommended that Magic be retired from duty as a Mounted Unit horse. Magic's left knee and hoof have been deteriorating for the past year. He has not responded well to the medication and care provided to treat the deterioration.

It is recommended that Magic be sold to Officer John Shoopman who is familiar with Magic's medical problems and his treatment and is the law enforcement officer to whom the animal is assigned.
