To Welcome the 14th Chinese School Association in the United States National Convention to Columbus and Celebrate Chinese Cultural and Language Week and the Ohio Contemporary Chinese School

WHEREAS, the Ohio Contemporary Chinese School proudly educates Columbus and Central Ohio residents on Chinese language and culture; and

WHEREAS, Columbus proudly supports one of the largest Asian-American communities in the Midwest, strengthened by a strong Chinese-American community; and

WHEREAS, on December 8th-10th, Columbus will host the 14th Chinese School Association in the United States (CSAUS) National Convention at the Hilton Polaris; and

WHEREAS, the CSAUS National Convention will invite nearly 500 industry leaders and experts to discuss Chinese language learning, cultural exchanges, and community engagement with a diverse range of workshops, panels, and speakers; and

WHEREAS, CSAUS first National Convention was held in Columbus in 1995 and 2023 represents a proud return to Central Ohio; and

WHEREAS, the convention is typically held during the second week of December, a time designated as Chinese Cultural and Language week; and

WHEREAS, the City of Columbus is proud to support our vibrant Chinese community through language and cultural exchanges; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COLUMBUS: That this Council welcomes the 14th Chinese School Association in the United States National Convention to Columbus and celebrates Chinese Cultural and Language week and the Ohio Contemporary Chinese School
