The Department of Recreation and Parks receives moneys from the Ohio Department of Aging, through its PASSPORT Medicaid, grant to provide eldercare programs. One of the requirements of the grant is that the clients to case manager ratio not exceed 65:1. This has however, become recently problematic as COAAA has been enrolling approximately one new caseload per month. As such, it is necessary to hire twenty (20) additional case managers to manage the additional workload and meet the grant requirements.
