To Recognize and Celebrate the 10th Annual Children's Water Festival in the City of Columbus

WHEREAS, the 10th Annual Children's Water Festival will be held on May 9th, 2017, at the Franklin Park Indoor Adventurer Center; and

WHEREAS, the festival is an opportunity to educate students from Central Ohio about the importance on clean water from stream to tap, and back again; and

WHEREAS, this year the festival will host more than six hundred fifth grade students from the Columbus Public Schools and several surrounding school districts; and

WHEREAS, students will participate in hands-on educational demonstrations led by staff from the City of Columbus' Departments of Water and Sewerage & Drainage, and joined by other local agencies including The Ohio State University, Ohio Environmental Protection Agency, and Franklin Soil and Water Conservation District in a day of learning and fun for all; and

WHEREAS, promoting environmental stewardship and awareness of our valuable water resources through interactive displays, hands-on activities and fun workshops is an important endeavor that will enhance mindfulness in protecting our environment now and in the future; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COLUMBUS:

That this Council does hereby recognize and celebrate the 10th Annual Children's Water Festival and its contribution to the City of Columbus on this day, May 9th, 2017.
