Columbus City Council established the Columbus Families Together Fund (CFTF) in 2017 to protect immigrant and refugee families in Central Ohio from the long-term financial and emotional devastation that results from aggressive deportation. The CFTF will provide $285,000.00 total over three years to organizations that meet specified legal services needs within the immigrant and refugee communities, with $185,000.00 allocated by the City of Columbus and an additional $100,000.00 in private philanthropic dollars pledged by the Vera Institute of Justice and directly allocated by them.

Columbus City Council solicited proposals from nonprofit legal service providers in the Central Ohio area to receive grants totaling $27,500.00 towards legal services that help keep families together in the Central Ohio immigrant and refugee communities.

Five grant applications were received for the Additional Legal Services Grant fund. A review committee of four immigration experts and one member of city staff reviewed the grant applications and recommended that Columbus City Council award $10,000.00 to the Our Lady of Guadalupe Center of Catholic Social Services.

Fiscal Impact: Funding is available within the Public Safety Initiatives subfund.

Emergency action is requested in order to immediately provide resources to Our Lady of Guadalupe to avoid any disruption in legal services for immigrant and refugee families.

WHEREAS, an emergency exists in the usual daily operation of the city in that it is immediately necessary to authorize Council to enter into a grant agreement with Our Lady of Guadalupe to avoid any disruption in legal services for immigrant and refugee families; now, therefore,
