Background: This legislation authorizes the Director of the Department of Development to enter into contract with the Columbus College of Art & Design (CCAD) for the continuation of the MindMarket Incubator Program. CCAD, founded in 1879 as the Columbus Art School, is one of the oldest and largest private art and design colleges in the United States. CCAD has been working diligently to build its presence in the business and arts community. The MindMarket Incubator Program was envisioned as a result of a need and desire to integrate the CCAD curriculum with the formation of a “business hub” to better prepare students for successful business and entrepreneurial lives after graduation. It serves as the institutional supporter of small and start-up creative businesses. Its mission is to support and foster the creation of new businesses in art & design industries, as well as to deliver entrepreneurship education to current students, alumni, and the Columbus creative community. The CCAD MindMarket Incubator assists emerging companies and entrepreneurs in gaining access to capital. The incubator creates a dynamic environment that supports the growth of artistic entrepreneurs in the creation, growth, and operation of their creative businesses. A range of general services can be accessed through membership in the CCAD MindMarket Incubator Program. Entrepreneurs receive tailored educational resources and access to strategic partners including investors, potential customers, vendors, legal counsel and capital partners.

As part of the formal structure of the CCAD MindMarket Incubator Program, a mentoring council serves as advisors and business mentors to the program. The CCAD MindMarket Incubator Mentoring Council’s involvement is to work with the CCAD MindMarket Director to provide expert advice to incubator tenants in their general operations. The Incubator Mentoring Council is comprised of seasoned professionals from the business, creative, legal and financial communities. As an additional part of the formal structure of the MindMarket Incubator Program, an advisory board comprised of professionals serves as advisors to the overall program. The board provides input and advice regarding the strategic direction of the incubator, serves as ambassadors in the community, and assists the CCAD MindMarket Incubator Program in achieving its overall goals and objectives.

Columbus City Council on May 13, 2013, per Ordinance 1081-2013, provided funding for the creation of the Mind

Market Incubator Program. Nearly 1,000 CCAD students have engaged in Mind Market Activities. Through its Design Agency, Thought Lab, and Enterprises HUB, the CCAD MindMarket has contributed to our local economy by supporting local creative and business communities.

Emergency Designation: Emergency legislation is requested in order to prevent an interruption of program services.

Fiscal Impact: This legislation authorizes the appropriation and expenditure of $100,000 from the Jobs Growth Fund for this purpose.
