This ordinance is submitted to settle the lawsuit known as Stephanie McBride v. City of Columbus, et al, Case No. 03CVC03-2488 in the Franklin County Common Pleas Court and Case No. 04APE12-1292 in the 10th District Court of Appeals, in the amount of Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($50,000.00). On March 6, 2001, Stephanie McBride, driving her own car as a postal carrier, was involved in an accident on Jackson Pike with a truck driven by an employee of the City's Refuse Collection Division, Public Service Department. Following an arbitration hearing, Plaintiff was awarded $122,000 by the arbitration panel. The City of Columbus filed an appeal in the 10th District Court of Appeals. A reasonable compromise by way of settlement of the litigation will be accomplished by this legislation.

Fiscal Impact: The Refuse Collection Division budgeted $71,400.00 for all claims activity in 2005. Some $46,980.00 has now been expended or is encumbered, leaving an available balance of $24,420.00 for use with this ordinance. The difference between this balance and the $50,000.00 needed is $25,580.00 and is available elsewhere within this Division's budget due to vacancy credits. This $25,580.00 is transferred between expenditure categories as appropriate by this ordinance.

To authorize the City Auditor to transfer $25,580.00 between expenditure categories within the Refuse Collection Division's 2005 General Fund appropriation; to authorize and direct the City Attorney to pay the settlement amount to Stephanie McBride and J. Scott Bowman, counsel for Ms. McBride, in the case of Stephanie McBride v. City of Columbus, et al, Case No. 03CVC03-2488 in the Franklin County Common Pleas Court and Case No. 04APE12-1292 in the 10th District Court of Appeals, to authorize the expenditure of the sum of Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars from the General Fund for this purpose and to declare an emergency. ($50,000.00)

WHEREAS, on March 4, 2003, the plaintiff filed a lawsuit in the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas, Case No. 03CVC03-2488, against the City of Columbus and City employee Donald Eugene Palmer, II in which she alleged she suffered injuries resulting in medical expenses and lost income as a result of negligence in the operation of the City's vehicle;

WHEREAS, following the evaluation of plaintiff's claims in the course of litigation, the parties reached an agreement to settle this matter. Due to the dispute of this claim and the risks and uncertainties associated with continued litigation and trial, the settlement amount was deemed acceptable by the City of Columbus, along with dismissal of the lawsuit with prejudice and a release of the City of Columbus and its employees from further liability; and,

WHEREAS, by reason of the foregoing, and in order to avoid the possible payment of interest, an emergency exists in the usual daily operation of the City and for further preservation of the public health, peace, property, safety and welfare, now, therefore:
