Background:

Plaintiffs Tamara K. Alsaada, Mahir Ali, Mary Barczak, Demetrius Burke, Bernadette Calvey, Stephanie Carlock, S.L.C., a minor, Keith Duerk, Jennifer Eidemiller, Andrew Fahmy, Talon Garth, Holly Hahn, Bryan Hazlett, Justin Horn, Kurghan Horn, Terry D. Hubby, Jr., Randy Kaigler, Elizabeth Koehler, Rebecca Lamey, Ricky Lee Lane, Nadia Lynch, Mia Mogavero, Michael Moses, Aleta Mixon, Darrell Mullen, Leeanne Pagliaro, Torrie Ruffin, Summer Schultz, Clarressa Thompson, Amanda Weldon, Amanda Williams, and Heather Wise (together “Plaintiffs”) brought suit against the City of Columbus, Thomas Quinlan, David B. Griffith, Duane Mabry, Lowell Rector, Lawrence Yates, Scott Bray, Brian Bruce, Christopher Capretta, Caroline Castro, David Gitlitz, Brian Steele, Paul Szabo, Paul Badois, Michael Dunlevy, Shawn Dye, Michael Eschenburg, Thomas Hammel, Holly Kanode, Kenneth Kirby, Benjamin Mackley, Benjamin Messerly, Gary Patterson, Robert Reffitt, Amber Rich, Shannon Schmid, and Phillip Walls (together “Defendants,” collectively Plaintiffs and Defendants are referred to as “the Parties”) in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Eastern Division, in the case captioned Tamara K. Alsaada et al., v. City of Columbus et al., United States District Court Case No. 2:20-cv-3431 (“the Lawsuit”).

Plaintiffs’ factual allegations (referred to in this Ordinance as “the Events”) are fully described in their Second Amended Complaint filed on May 27, 2021 and can be summarized as follows:

On May 25, 2020, the killing of George Floyd, who was being arrested by then Minneapolis Police Department Officer Derek Chauvin for allegedly passing a counterfeit $20 bill to buy cigarettes, was live-streamed over the Internet for eight minutes and 46 seconds and later televised around the world. Starting on May 28, 2020, in Columbus, Ohio, Plaintiffs allege that, along with hundreds of thousands in cities, states, and countries, they took to the streets to demonstrate against excessive use of force by police and to express their outrage at the militarization of police forces, the disparate impact on minority communities of law enforcement priorities, and a pattern or practice of governments at all levels tolerating systemic racism and failing to adopt effective policies or implement adequate training, supervision, and discipline of law enforcement officers.

Plaintiffs allege that Defendants responded to the protests with excessive use of force, and that said excessive force was purposely used to punish one or more Plaintiffs and other demonstrators, to deter them from continuing to protest and others from joining the protests with which they disagreed, and in order to reclaim the streets. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants maliciously prosecuted one or more Plaintiffs to punish them and deter other demonstrators from continuing to protest. Plaintiffs contend that on May 29 and 30, 2020, a similar dynamic occurred and a curfew from 10:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. was imposed on May 30, 2020.

As a result of the Events, Plaintiffs brought six causes of action, alleging that the officer Defendants used excessive force caused by the deliberate indifference of the City and the Chief in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the US Constitution; violated the Plaintiffs’ freedom of assembly and expression in contravention of the First and Fourteenth Amendments; committed the torts of gross negligence, battery, and malicious prosecution; and raised a civil action to seek damages due to an alleged violation of the criminal laws.

The Parties wish to enter into a Settlement Agreement to resolve all claims. Plaintiffs understand and agree that this Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims, and that the City’s participation in this Settlement Agreement is not to be construed as an admission of liability on the part of the Defendants.

Fiscal Impact:

Funds were not specifically budgeted for this settlement; however, sufficient monies are the in Department of Finance’s Citywide account for this purpose.

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants violated Plaintiffs’ rights under the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the US Constitution and engaged in related tortious conduct in responding to the Events beginning May 28, 2020 all as fully described in their Second Amended Complaint filed on May 27, 2021 and as summarized in the Background to this Ordinance as fully incorporated herein (the “Events”); and

WHEREAS, following an evaluation of the Events, a Settlement Agreement to include the amount of Five Million, Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($5,750,000.00), to be paid by the City of Columbus, was deemed to be acceptable in exchange for the release of any and all claims, and an agreement to defend and indemnify the City of Columbus and any of its current or former employees, agents, and officials; and
