File #: 3108-2016, Version: 1

BACKGROUND: The Historic Resources Commission (CC 1117) is charged, in part, with identifying structures, groups, districts and sites of historic and architectural significance. As part of this responsibility, the commission provides recommendations to City Council regarding potential listings on the Columbus Register of Historic Properties. An application has been made by Designing Local (Applicant/Preservation Consultant) in cooperation with Dispatch Printing Company/Michael J. Fiorili (Owner) to list the property located at 34 South Third Street on the register. The subject structure, built in 1925, is the former Columbus Dispatch building. The commission hosted a public hearing on November 17, 2016 at which they voted unanimously to recommend listing of the property on the Columbus Register based on the following criteria outlined in CC 3117:

“The design or style of the property’s exterior and/or interior is of significance to the historical, architectural, or cultural development of the city, state, or nation.”

“The property is closely and publicly identified with a person who has significantly contributed to the historical, architectural, or cultural development of the city, state, or nation.”

“The property is closely and publicly identified with an event, or series of events, which has influenced the historical, architectural, or cultural development of the city, state, or nation.”

Listing of this property on the Columbus Register will facilitate its listing on the National Register of Historic Places.

FISCAL IMPACT: None
