Legislation Text

File #: 0366-2005, Version: 1

Background: The City of Columbus is the owner of certain real property located in the vicinity east of Sancus Boulevard and Brockwell Drive, more fully describe in the body of this legislation. Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., desires to relocate its existing gas main within Worthington Glen Condominiums to provide service to the Lazelle Community Center. At the request of Columbia, it will release said easement previously granted in exchange for a new easement. After investigation, it has been determined that the granting of a new easement for relocation of Columbia's gas line in exchange for Columbia releasing the previously granted easement will not be detrimental to the Department of Recreation & Park, City of Columbus, Ohio and should be granted at no charge. The following legislation authorizes the Director of the Recreation and Parks Department to execute those instruments necessary to grant the subject easement.

Fiscal Impact: N/A

Emergency Justification: Emergency action is requested to allow the immediate granting of the aforementioned utility easement and the subsequent benefit of future Gas service to certain City owned property to proceed without delay.

To authorize the Director of the Recreation and Parks Department to execute those documents, necessary to grant an perpetual easement for relocation of Columbia's existing gas line in exchange for Columbia releasing the previously granted easement located in the vicinity of Sancus Boulevard and Brockwell Drive and to declare an emergency.

WHEREAS, the City of Columbus is the owner of certain real property located in the vicinity east of Sancus Boulevard and Brockwell Drive, more fully describe in the body of this legislation.; and

WHEREAS, Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., desires to relocate its existing gas main within Worthington Glen Condominiums to provide service to the Lazelle Community; and

WHEREAS, at the request of Columbia, it will release certain easements previously granted by the City in exchange for a new easement

WHEREAS, after investigation, it has been determined that the granting of a new easement for relocation of Columbia's gas line in exchange for Columbia releasing the previously granted easement will not be detrimental to the Department of Recreation & Park, City of Columbus, Ohio and should be granted at no charge; and

WHEREAS, an emergency exists in the usual daily operation of the City of Columbus, that it is immediately necessary to authorize the Director of the Recreation and Parks Department to execute those instruments prepared by the Real Estate Division, Department of Law, necessary to grant a perpetual non-exclusive easement in, under, across, over and through certain real property located in the vicinity of Sancus Boulevard and Brockwell Drive in exchange for Columbia releasing the previously granted easement for the immediate preservation of the public health, peace, property and safety; now, therefore:

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COLUMBUS:

Section 1. That the Director of the Recreation and Parks Department be and hereby is authorized to execute those documents prepared by the Department of Law, Real Estate Division necessary to grant a perpetual non-exclusive easement in, under,
