BACKGROUND:

Municipal Code Corporation completed their bi-annual review of the codes for the City of Columbus, and has indicated that several code sections throughout the complete code of the City of Columbus need to be updated. Specifically affecting the Columbus Zoning Code, Title 33, the current definition for "Manufactured Home" contained in Chapter 3303, needs to be updated to remain consistent with the definition found in the Ohio Revised Code. This code change corrects the identified deficiencies found in this definition while not altering the scope or level of regulation contained in the Columbus Zoning Code.

The Columbus Development Commission voted to recommend approval of this Zoning Code revision at its monthly public meeting on February 13, 2014
