This ordinance will allow Lutheran Social Services to partner with the City of Columbus in the provision of Ohio Benefit Bank services to constituents who visit the Franklin County Courthouse. To provide these services, LSS will supply an on-site Ohio Benefit Bank coordinator during peak times at the Courthouse that will provide education and recruit clients, conduct checks to determine likelihood of benefit eligibility and refer constituents to other agencies as appropriate.

Previous analysis of Ohio Benefit Bank results at Lutheran Social Services indicate that for every dollar invested in the OBB program, LSS Counselors return $75 to low-income families in our community. While LSS cannot guarantee that the same return on investment will be generated for clients through the Courthouse, this investment will generate a significant return for our constituents and for our community.

Fiscal Impact Funding for this ordinance is made available from the city's Public Safety Initiatives Fund 016.
