In November 2014, Columbus voters approved a series of ballot issues which amended the Columbus City Charter. Included among the changes was a mandate to establish a Citizens' Commission on Elected Official Compensation to review and recommend the salary for each elective officer of the city, with the underlying goal of increasing citizen engagement and adding an additional layer of accountability to the process of setting future pay rates for elected officials in Columbus.

The 2015 Citizens' Commission on Elected Official Compensation issued its reports and recommendations in June 2015 and the Commission's recommendations were enacted by City Council pursuant to Ordinance 3185-2015 for the years 2016 through 2021. In January 2018, Mayor Andrew Ginther and City Council President Shannon Hardin formed the 2018 Citizens' Commission on Elected Official Compensation as required under Section 15-2 of the Columbus City Charter and charged them with reviewing compensation for the mayor, city council members, city council president, city attorney, and city auditor, and make salary recommendations including an annual cost of living adjustment to not exceed the average increase in the consumer price index over the preceding four years.

Commission members included:

- Fred Ransier, Chair, Partner, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease
- Joel Diaz, Chief Marketing & Community Affairs Officer, Equitas Health
- Diana Givand, Associate, Dinsmore & Shohl, LLP
- Qiana Williams, Human Resources Director, OhioHealth

· Robert J. Weiler, Sr., Chair of the Board, The Robert Weiler Company

The 2018 Compensation Commission held seven meetings before finalizing recommendations for the salary of each elective official of the city. Under the Columbus City Charter, setting elected official salaries will still require a public vote of City Council. Council may accept and enact the Commission's recommendations in whole or in part. Council may enact all of the recommendations as submitted, some of the recommendations as submitted, or may enact an amount less than recommended. However, Council is prohibited from enacting any amount greater than the recommendations.

The salaries for all City of Columbus elected officials were set in Ordinance No. 3185-2018. Pursuant to City Charter Section 15, salaries for these positions cannot be increased or diminished during an elected official's term in office. This ordinance amends the Management Compensation Plan (MCP) to set salaries for the mayor, city auditor, city council members, city council president, and the city attorney for years 2022, 2023, 2024, and 2025.

To accept the recommendations of the Citizens' Commission on Elected Official Compensation and to amend the Management Compensation Plan by amending Sections 5(E)-C180, City Attorney (E); 5(E)-C185, City Auditor (E); 5(E)-C215, City Council Member; 5(E)-C220, City Council President; and 5(E)-M090, Mayor (E); and to declare an emergency.

WHEREAS, the Citizens' Commission on Elected Official Compensation was established in 2015 as a result of the changes to Section 15 of the City Charter approved by voters in November 2014; and

WHEREAS, in January 2018, Columbus Mayor Andrew Ginther and City Council President Shannon G. Hardin appointed five commissioners to the 2018 Citizens' Commission on Elected Official Compensation; and

WHEREAS, the current Management Compensation Plan, Ordinance No. 2713-2013, as amended does not provide for salaries for the city attorney, city auditor, city council member, city council president, or mayor for the years 2022 - 2026; and

WHEREAS, following an extensive review of elected official compensation in comparable cities, and after extensive public outreach and deliberation, the Compensation Commission voted unanimously to establish a base salary for city auditor, city attorney, city council members, city council president, and mayor in year 2022; and

WHEREAS, the Compensation Commission unanimously voted to establish an annual cost of living increase for all elective officers of the City that shall be equal to, but not exceed, the geometric average increase in the U.S. Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics' CPI-U, All U.S. Cities, Size Class A, All Items for the four-year period ending the month prior to the year in which the cost of living increase will be realized; and

WHEREAS, an emergency exists in the usual daily operation of the City in that it is immediately necessary to implement the recommendations of the Citizens' Commission on Elected Official Compensation Commission as required under the City Charter; Now, therefore
