To honor, recognize, and celebrate Ms. Sherri Palmer and her retirement from the City of Columbus.

WHEREAS, Sherri Palmer began her career with the City of Columbus on March 20, 2006 in the Department of Public Service when she became the Keep Columbus Beautiful Manager. She held this position until her retirement on October 22, 2020; and

WHEREAS, Sherri Palmer views Keep Columbus Beautiful as a mission and a passion rather than just a job. She has an exceptional work ethic and seemingly limitless energy. Her drive is reinforced by incredible creativity and standard for high quality results that reflect well on the City, the Mayor, and the Department of Public Service; and

WHEREAS, Keep Columbus Beautiful plays an important role in bringing residents, businesses, and community leaders throughout our neighborhoods together for the common goal of keeping our neighborhoods clean and welcoming, which has increased the sense of community pride within the city of Columbus; and

WHEREAS, Sherri Palmer sets a great example for the thousands of volunteers who Keep Columbus Beautiful works with each year. Sherri effectively uses a personal one-on-one approach to spread her positive attitude and passion she brings to her work and the mission of Keep Columbus Beautiful; and

WHEREAS, The City of Columbus is truly grateful for the efforts of Ms. Sherri Palmer and her ability to build relationships and bring the community together in Keeping Columbus Beautiful; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COLUMBUS: To honor, recognize, and celebrate Ms. Sherri Palmer and her retirement from the City of Columbus on Thursday, October 22, 2020.
