BACKGROUND:

The Division of Design and Construction is responsible for managing construction contracts, providing quality and timely construction inspection, surveying, and materials testing services in support of publicly and privately-funded infrastructure construction projects.

On April 1, 2009, the Department of Public Service ceased all expenditure and revenue activity in the development services fund and established two new funds: the private construction inspection fund and the internal service construction inspection fund. The private construction inspection fund captures the accounting activity of the Division of Design and Construction that is connected with the inspection of private development

The Private Inspection Special Revenue Fund was created to support the certain activities of the Department of Public Service charged with inspection service of private developments infrastructure construction generally associated with subdivision and commercial development.

The current fee structure has been fully reviewed and compared to the actual cost incurred by the Department of Public Service. As a result of this review, some fees have increased to better anticipate development and construction related costs.

These proposed fee schedule changes have been reviewed by the Building Services Review Council (BSRC).

FISCAL IMPACT: Fees have been revised to better reflect the City's actual costs associated with the private development inspection processes.

To adopt a new Development Related Fee Schedule for the Department of Public Service, Infrastructure Transportation Construction Inspection Fees, to be effective on Thursday, January 5, 2023

WHEREAS, the Department of Public Service Private Inspection Special Revenue Fund was created to support the inspection activities of the Department of Public Service agencies charged with the review and inspection of private development and construction review process; and

WHEREAS, the cost of all private development and construction review and inspection services were to be made self-sustaining through the creation of a special revenue fund called the Private Construction Inspection Special Revenue Fund; and

WHEREAS, this fund is supported solely by fees collected from the users of these services associated directly with the private development and construction review and inspection process; and

WHEREAS, the current fee structure has been fully reviewed and compared to the actual cost incurred by the Department of Public Service and other reviewing agencies and partners; and

WHEREAS, as a result of this review, some fees have increased; and

WHEREAS, these proposed fee schedule changes have been reviewed by the Building Services Review Council (BSRC); and

WHEREAS, it has become necessary in the usual daily operation of the Departments of Public Service to adopt a new Development Related Fee Schedule for the Department of Public Service, Infrastructure Transportation Construction Inspection Fees, to be effective on Thursday, January 5, 2023; now, therefore:
